RECENT AMENDMENTS TO THE DECLARATION

Dear Unit Owners,

For your reference, we have summarized the recent list of amendments to the Declaration of Covenants, as filed on July 25, 2016, and they are as follows:

Amendments §3.3.1 Ownership of Townhouse for Two (2) Years Prior to Leasing, §3.3.2 Prohibition of Ownership of Townhouse by an Entity, §3.3.3 Frequency, Duration, and Approval of Leases, and §3.3.4 Security Deposit received the required number of votes exceeding the two-thirds threshold required and will therefore be recorded as amendments to the Southampton POA declaration of covenants effective immediately upon recordation by the clerk of the court of Palm Beach County Florida. The four amendments receiving the required number of votes will become sections §3.3.1, §3.3.2, §3.3.3, and §3.3.4 and are defined below as previously disseminated in the voting packet numbered §3.3.1, §3.3.2, §3.3.3, §3.3.4, §3.3.5 and §3.3.6. Amendments §3.3.4 and §3.3.6 did not pass and therefore will not be included in the adopted amendments prepared for recordation.

Section 3.3 will be stricken from the declaration and replaced as follows.

USE RESTRICTIONS

~~Section 3.3 Ownership and Leases of Townhouse. No Owner shall lease his residence, or any portion thereof, until one (1) year after the date that Declarant initially conveys fee simple title to such residence and Lot to an Owner. No Owner shall lease his residence, or any portion thereof, without the prior approval of the Association. Said approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. Under no circumstances shall the residence, or any portion thereof, be leased for a period of less than twelve (12) months.~~

§3.3.1 Ownership of Townhouse for Two (2) Years Prior to Leasing

An Owner must own his/her/their Townhouse for twenty-four (24) consecutive months before the Townhouse may be rented or leased excluding any (i) Townhouse owned by the Association or which may otherwise be leased by the Association under applicable law as amended from time to time; (ii) Townhouse transferred by devise or inheritance as a result of the death of an Owner; (iii) Townhouse transferred to a trust for estate or tax planning purposes in which no change of occupancy has occurred, and (iv) Townhouse acquired by the mortgagee of a mortgage thereon through foreclosure or deed in lieu of foreclosure of such mortgage. Additionally, any record Owner of a Townhouse as of the recordation of this amendment shall not be subject to the aforesaid twenty-four (24) month restriction against leasing.

§3.3.2 Prohibition of Ownership of Townhouse by an Entity

Subsequent to the recordation of this amendment the sale or transfer of any ownership interest of a Townhouse to a corporation, company, partnership, Limited Liability Company, trust or other entity (non-natural person) is prohibited. The foregoing restriction on ownership is not applicable to the Association with respect to any Townhouse acquired by the Association, or to a mortgagee acquiring a Townhouse through foreclosure of its mortgage or deed in lieu of foreclosure. The aforesaid restriction on ownership shall also not be applicable to the transfer of a Townhouse to a trust or other non-natural person entity for the sole purpose of estate or tax planning purposes as determined by the Board of Directors in its sole and absolute discretion.

§3.3.3 Frequency, Duration and Approval of Leases

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment – or to take another adverse action against you – must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.
- You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer reporting agency (your “file disclosure”). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:
 - a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
 - you are the victim of identity theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
 - your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud;
 - you are on public assistance;
 - you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.

In addition, all consumers are entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for additional information.

- You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit-worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.
- You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for an explanation of dispute procedures.

- Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information. Inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.
- Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a consumer reporting agency may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.
- Access to your file is limited. A consumer reporting agency may provide information about you only to people with a valid need – usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.
- You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A consumer reporting agency may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.
- You may limit “prescreened” offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report. Unsolicited “prescreened” offers for credit and insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you choose to remove your name and address from the lists these offers are based on. You may opt out with the nationwide credit bureaus at 1-888-5-OPTOUT (1-888-567-8688).
- The following FCRA right applies with respect to nationwide consumer reporting agencies:

CONSUMERS HAVE THE RIGHT TO OBTAIN A SECURITY FREEZE

You have a right to place a “security freeze” on your credit report, which will prohibit a consumer reporting agency from releasing information in your credit report without your express authorization. The security freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a security freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit.

As an alternative to a security freeze, you have the right to place an initial or extended fraud alert on your credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer's credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer's credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer's identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting 7 years.

A security freeze does not apply to a person or entity, or its affiliates, or collection agencies acting on behalf of the person or entity, with which you have an existing account that requests information in your credit report for the purposes of reviewing or collecting the account. Reviewing the account includes activities related to account maintenance, monitoring, credit line increases, and account upgrades and enhancements.

- You may seek damages from violators. If a consumer reporting agency, or, in some cases, a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency violates the FCRA, you may be able to sue in state or federal court.
- Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.

States may enforce the FCRA, and many states have their own consumer reporting laws. In some cases, you may have more rights under state law. For more information, contact your state or local consumer protection agency or your state Attorney General. For information about your federal rights, contact:

A Townhouse eligible to be leased under the provisions of this Article (including subject to any limit on the number of Townhouses that may be leased at any time as set forth herein) may only be leased once in any twelve (12) consecutive month period, measured from the commencement of the most recent lease term, for a term of twelve (12) months. The aforesaid restrictions on the frequency and term of leasing a Townhouse shall not be affected if a lease terminates prematurely as a result of the lessee vacating the premises or otherwise. Only an entire Townhouse may be leased or rented and no individual room or rooms or less than the entire Townhouse may be leased or rented. Subleasing is prohibited. Transient tenancy is also prohibited. Renewals of any rental or lease is permitted but must be approved by the Association. Among the factors the Board of Directors may consider with respect to a proposed lease renewal are, without limitation, whether the Owner is in good standing with the Association and whether the lessee(s) has/have any history of failing to abide by the provisions of this Declaration or the Rules and Regulations of the Association.

§3.3.4 Security Deposit

As a condition to any lease approval per the requirements of this Article, the Board of Directors of the Association may require the lessee to pay the Association a security deposit in such amount as determined by the Board of Directors from time to time, not to exceed any maximum amount established by law from time to time. The security deposit shall be security for any damage(s) caused to the Common Area(s) or any portion of a Townhouse maintained by the Association. The security deposit shall be handled in accordance with Part II of Chapter 83, Florida Statutes, as amended or renumbered from time to time.

Subject: Parking Concerns at Hampton Cay

To all concerned,

Several residents within Hampton Cay have expressed their concerns regarding overnight parking and vehicles blocking designated fire lanes within the development. After partnering with residents and various City department heads a remedy to these issues has been identified.

Effective immediately, and in accordance with a mutually agreed upon Traffic Enforcement Agreement, Palm Beach Gardens police officers will enforce overnight and fire lane parking within Hampton Cay. The following are references to City Ordinances that will assist officers with enforcement:

City Ordinance 70-62 (18)... prohibits parking in the roadway, on any city street between the hours of 11:00 pm and 6:00 am.

City Ordinance 70-62 (16)...Any motor vehicle, commercial vehicle, or recreational vehicle where the parking of the same may interfere with the ingress and/or egress of fire department or emergency vehicles for the protection of persons or property.

Please feel free to contact me with questions or concerns.

Homeowners must identify the areas to be planted on the maps provided the ARC and must identify their unit on the map.

Homeowners must register their intent to plant with management company by completing the approved forms and submitting the completed forms to the management company prior to planting. Properly submitted forms will constitute the HOA's approval to plant the plants listed in the forms and in the areas designated on the maps.

No other plantings shall be allowed.

Plants may not be removed nor moved from their current location. The HOA reserves the right to remove any plants not planted according to these rules, at the homeowner's expense.

Homeowners are responsible for any and all damage caused by planting diseased plants, including any damage to other plants. The HOA will be responsible to maintain the new plants after a period of 12 months or until such time as the new plants are considered robust and able to be maintained in the normal course of landscape maintenance whichever comes first.

Homeowners who submit the proper forms as described above shall be granted a limited easement solely for the purpose of planting the identified plants and only for as long as necessary to properly plant the plants, in no event longer than one week. The limited easement expires upon completion of the plantings or one week after submitting the forms, whichever comes first. The homeowner has a continuing duty to maintain the plants until the HOA assumes responsibility. The homeowner's duty to maintain the plants is not to be considered an easement to enter upon or modify the existing planted areas, however the homeowner shall be responsible for providing adequate water and fertilizer, if needed, to allow the plants to become robust and independent.

Prior to planting, the homeowner must determine the location of all irrigation, electric, gas, water, cable TV and other utilities and shall be held responsible for any and all damaged.
